FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Millstone Medical Outsourcing Hires Veteran VP of Business Development to Support OEMs from Warsaw, IN Fall River, MA – December 2, 2011 – Millstone Medical Outsourcing announced today that the company hired Thomas C. Lowe as Vice President of Business Development in Warsaw, IN. Mr. Lowe brings to his new position a long track record of cultivating business relationships in the medical device industry. Located in Warsaw, Mr. Lowe will be responsible for developing key accounts and supporting Millstone's medical device manufacturing customers. Millstone, outsource partner to the nation's top orthopedic companies, is the fast-growing provider of advanced inspection, clean room packaging, loaner kit processing, and distribution services to medical and dental device manufacturers worldwide.

Mr. Lowe's background includes more than 18 years of generating new business. Prior to Millstone, he spent 14 years with a Tier 1 supplier to the medical device industry, where he was primarily responsible for identifying, building, and managing strategic accounts. Mr. Lowe began his career as a field representative for a large Chicago-based orthopedic distributorship.

"Tom has dedicated the majority of his career to building relationships within the medical device world," said Chris Ramsden, Millstone Chief Executive Officer. "Millstone is a growing company, and we are excited to welcome a professional of Tom's caliber. In addition to introducing us to potential customers, Tom's role will be ensuring the care of existing relationships and the successful launch of new programs."
